SPEAKER

Tim Lundy, CSEP, event planner, designer and trained chef has been a vital part of the special events industry for 27+ years. His event design and planning company, Distinctive Design Events, is an award winning events company and has been in operation for 21 years. DDE, under Tim's creative spirit, has produced major corporate events for the Olympics, International News Group-London, Fortune 100 Companies worldwide and Eastern US Fortune 500 Companies. Tim began his career as a trained chef and worked as an 'a la minute' chef in fine dining restaurants from New York to Atlanta. He presently owns a Gourmet Foods and Fine Wines food establishment, Rosewood Market, in Highlands, North Carolina and has produced major weddings and social events throughout North America and the Caribbean. Tim Lundy, CSEP was awarded his professional designation as a Certified Special Events Professional through the International Special Events Society in 1995 in Toronto, Canada. He was the International President of ISES in 1997-1998 and has been on the Boards of NACE (National Association of Catering Executives), ISES, AIWF (American Institute of Wine & Food), and ICA (International Caterers Association). Tim is currently the President Elect for ICA.

What is ISES

The International Special Events Society is comprised of over 4,000 professionals associated among 41 chapters world wide who work in the special events industry as event planners, caterers, decorators, florists, destination management companies, rental and production companies, tent suppliers, audio-visual technicians, party and convention coordinators, hotel and convention managers, entertainers and much more. ISES provides education and networking to its members to promote professionalism in the special events industry.
